To my Sponsors and Logos Scholarship Fund,
How are you? I hope you are fine and you are taking care during this pandemic. We are also taking care and ensuring that we stay safe. I am Peter Njoroge a student in Form 4 at Njiiri School. Personally, I have faced difficult times since the outbreak of COVID-19. Schools are no longer operating and we were sent back home until further notice. Since then life has not been the same. The economy has been disrupted. Making ends meet has been quite hard and putting food on the table even harder.

Reading from home is not easy. There is a difference between having a teacher in a classroom and studying while alone at home. Teachers would explain everything perfectly and see to it that every student understood what was being taught, unlike now when I have to read by myself. It is often hard to understand some of the complex topics on my own.

Our school (Njiiri) came up with the idea of having online classes. It was received well for the first few weeks but later a good number of us had to drop out because it was quite expensive. To make sure that my learning did not come to an end, I found a young teacher in our village to help me with my studies.

I have also been trying to grow spiritually by doing my own personal devotion where I have been reading the Bible quite frequently.

To my sponsors, I would like to thank you and appreciate your efforts. The food aid I have received has been appreciated by my family. Thank you also for paying my school fees. May the Almighty God bless you. To Logos, thank you for this golden opportunity. You have really changed my life. I have learnt a lot through you. I will put this opportunity to good use and not let you down. Thank you and may God bless you.

Yours faithfully,
Peter Njoroge.

To: Andreas Gemeide Church and Logos Scholarship Fund,

I hereby take this opportunity to thank you for remembering us especially during this period of COVID - 19. It has been tough especially for our parents. As of now, my father's job has been terminated and my mother has to do her best in order to feed the whole family. We had almost lost hope and were now waiting to travel upcountry since life in Nairobi has been very tough.

Apart from studying at home and trying to do some jobs like sewing, our parents are aiding us in growing spiritually. We usually have a session that runs for two hours and I really like that, because I know in everything, we must put God first.

I would like to thank you for what you have been doing for us. It's a really big thing to help a needy family, making sure that their children are in school. Helping a child is like helping the whole community. Lastly, thank you for the food. I know that it will really help us and keep us going. May the Almighty Father bless you because I know He is always watching.

Thank you all.

TERTIARY

Eric Mambo

I have always wanted to be a psychologist because for the longest time I have looked at it as a way of giving back to my community. I want to be in a position where I can inspire positive change and create a platform where everyone is free to express themselves. I am looking forward to joining a college in the near future.

When the coronavirus pandemic struck, I did not want to be idle, so I started doing some small income-generating activities like masonry which helped me a lot especially in my poetry. I use most of my income to pay for my recordings at the studio and so far, I have been able to record three pieces. I feel that this has been a great investment and very instrumental in sparking some level of positive change in me and those around me. The struggle to raise the money was worth it!

Being an introvert, I spend the better part of my day at home listening to music and writing poems. This has enabled me to stay away from vices and destructive behavior like drugs and crime that most youths are getting involved in while on the streets. Also, I like volunteering at Logos Scholarship Fund whenever I am free because it is a great learning experience and a very rewarding task. Here, one experiences fun while gaining a lot of knowledge relating to careers and the workplace.

I was able to work with Logos Scholarship Fund as a volunteer from 24th August 2020 to 27th August 2020, doing food packaging as well as the distribution of food packs to various beneficiaries of the fund. It was a wonderful experience and I thank Logos for involving me in that fulfilling task. I look forward to being part of other activities within Logos as a way of giving back to Logos and the community at large.

POST TERTIARY

James Kamau Wahjjeri
Lawyer

I am an Advocate of the High Court and was admitted to the bar in 2017.

I grew up in a humble home in Riruta Satellite, Nairobi. I sat the Kenya Certificate of Primary Education in 2005 and attained 407 marks. In 2006, I was admitted to Upper Hill School but my mother was not able to pay my school fees due to financial constraints. At this time, I was privileged to be a recipient of a scholarship from Nairobi Chapel and Mavuno Churches who had partnered to provide education to bright but vulnerable children from needy backgrounds. This program would later be known as Logos Scholarship Fund.

I passed the Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education examination, attained a B- and was then admitted to Mt. Kenya University School of Law, where I graduated with a degree in Law. After this, I enrolled in the Advocates Training Program at the Kenya School of Law where I attained a distinction.

I often think of the miracle that the Logos Scholarship Fund was to me and my family. If Logos not taken care of my school fees, I do not know whether I would have achieved the milestones that I have today. I am now working hard to ensure that I can make a difference in someone's life just as Logos made a difference in my life.

Thank you!

"A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed."
