

LOGOS Newsletter

SEPT - OCT 2023 EDITION

Welcome to the September/October edition of the Logos Scholarship Fund Newsletter.

In this edition, we delve into the heart of our mission by shining a spotlight on two pivotal aspects of our initiative: the recently held Parents-Scholars Forum and the profound testimonies we've received from parents of our scholars.

THE PARENTS - SCHOLARS FORUM

The Logos Scholarship Fund isn't just a program; it's a vibrant tapestry of purpose and compassion. We're not content with merely nurturing scholars' minds; we are dedicated to tending to their spirits and creating a connection that envelopes parents as well. This journey is more than academics; it's a transformative experience that weaves together hearts and minds in an embrace of community.

In our pursuit of this holistic vision, we've ingeniously woven the threads of pastoral care, crafting a space where parents find not only camaraderie but also a true sense of belonging through residential-based community support groups.

These community support groups aren't just about knowing addresses; they are a commitment to shared responsibility and mutual upliftment. They serve as a tapestry of accountability, with both parents and the Logos office united in the purpose of guiding these scholars to greatness. But it's more than just logistics – it's about nurturing souls. Through Bible studies, prayer gatherings, and empowering workshops, we're nurturing the spirits of those who tirelessly nurture our scholars. Our Parents-Scholars Forum stands as a testament to this harmonization where parents and scholars mingle in an atmosphere of camaraderie engaging in icebreakers that infuse laughter and connection. In those moments, scholars catch a glimpse of the child within their parents, and parents see the aspirations of their offspring taking flight. It's in these spaces of joy that bridges of understanding are forged, and challenges of teenage hood are addressed with empathy and wisdom.

During this forum in August, our scholars shared the raw stories of their journey – tales of resilience, peer pressures, and aspirations. This wasn't just a dialogue; it was an exchange of strength and vulnerability, a testament to the unity we strive for. It's not just about scholars talking, or parents listening; it's about hearts connecting, generation to generation.

DENNIS KAMAU

Dennis, a scholar whose journey has been nothing short of remarkable, shared a beautiful testimony that resonated with all of us. Through the session, Dennis's guardian, his beloved grandfather, experienced a transformative realization: the significance of interaction in preventing potential problems. This eye-opening lesson became a bridge that deepened their understanding of one another, fostering a connection that now shines brighter than ever before.

In the heartwarming embrace of the session, Dennis not only gained insights but also a newfound wisdom on relating to his grandfather. The wisdom of generations fused, leaving Dennis with a rich understanding of how to nurture this special bond they share. In a moment of profound reflection, he grasped the vital importance of sharing challenges with those who care for us the most – our guardians, our parents. It's a lesson that resonates deeply and universally, reminding us all of the strength that surfaces when we let our vulnerabilities be known.

SHANOL MUTINYI

Shanol's journey was illuminated by a profound awakening that has transformed his outlook. The curtain has been drawn back, revealing a deeper understanding and genuine appreciation for the trials and sacrifices his mother endures on his behalf. This revelation kindled a fierce determination within him, guiding him towards a path of renewed focus and purpose.

Shanol recognized the need to step away from the allure of social media. Armed with a newfound wisdom, he is charting a course that empowers him to be present, to engage with the tangible world around him, and to cultivate genuine connections beyond the digital realm.

Wise beyond his years, Shanol is resolute in his commitment to select friends with care and intention. The importance of surrounding oneself with positive influences did not escape him, and he embraced this lesson with open arms. He has pledged to walk away from the shadows of negative company, staying true to his values and aspirations.

With the compass of determination pointing towards success, Shanol has set his sights on a tangible goal: achieving a B- grade in the upcoming third term. This aspiration is not just a fleeting wish; it's a testament to his tenacity and his unyielding desire to rise to his full potential.

The embrace of a mother's love and faith is a guiding force in Shanol's journey. His mother's heartfelt prayers enveloped him, carrying with them a chorus of hopes and blessings. This gesture is a reminder that Shalom's pursuit of growth is buoyed by the unwavering support of those who hold him dear.

Shanol's tale reminds us that growth is an ongoing process, and the path to success is paved with mindfulness, wise choices, and the embrace of love and prayer.

THANKSGIVING

With hearts brimming with gratitude, we lift our voices in thanks to God for the incredible journey of our scholars. Their dedication and hard work is acknowledged as they receive invitations from various esteemed institutions to pursue an array of courses. This remarkable achievement is a testament to their diligence and the guidance that has shaped their path.

As we celebrate this milestone, we are reminded of the transformative power of education and the endless possibilities it brings. These scholars are not only stepping into institutions of learning but also embarking on a journey that will shape their futures and empower them to make a meaningful impact in their chosen fields. We look forward to witnessing the incredible growth and accomplishments that lie ahead for each one of them.

PRAYER

It is with deep sadness that we announce the death of one of our scholars - Blessings Nyanchama who was unwell.

Join us in prayer as we ask the Lord for His comforting presence to surround Blessings' family, especially her dear mother who now bears the weight of loss. In the midst of this sorrow, we lift her up in our prayers, asking for the Lord's gentle touch to heal her heart and grant her the strength to navigate this painful chapter. May the Lord's peace, which surpasses all understanding, enfold her mother and the entire family in the midst of her grief.

you.

"The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace."
