

LOGOS Newsletter

JULY - AUGUST 2024 EDITION

Dear Scholars, Mentors, Sponsors, and Supporters,

As we embrace the chilly yet hopeful months of July and August, we are reminded of the profound impact that generosity and community spirit can have on our world. This edition of the Logos Scholarship Fund newsletter is dedicated to celebrating the power of Giving Back and the extraordinary Community Impact that our collective efforts continue to create.

Each one of you—our dedicated scholars, inspiring mentors, generous sponsors, and unwavering supporters—embodies the essence of this mission. Your contributions, whether through time, knowledge, or resources, have not only transformed lives but have also woven a fabric of hope and opportunity within our communities.

In this edition, we feature the stories of some inspiring and remarkable young scholars who have taken time to give back to their community.

ALVIN NDUNGU:

A YOUNG ADVOCATE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND COMMUNITY WELLNESS

Meet Alvin Ndungu, a spirited 15-year-old currently in Form Two. Alvin has a passion for dancing, but his commitment to his community shines just as brightly. Through the Logos Scholarship Fund, Alvin has learned the significance of giving back, which he embodies by actively participating in community clean-ups.

He understands that garbage and hazardous waste create breeding grounds for insects and rodents, increase pollution, and lead to unsanitary conditions that can cause health issues. Alvin takes great pride in being part of the community clean-up group, helping to prevent the spread of disease and ensuring his community remains clean and safe.

RUTH NYAMISA

A BEACON OF FAITH AND SERVICE IN HER COMMUNITY

At just 16 years old and currently in Form Three, Ruth Nyamisa exemplifies a heart dedicated to service and faith. Ruth has a profound love for children, a passion for reading the Bible, and a gift for singing. Her deep desire to share her love for Christ has led her to teach Sunday school at her church during school holidays and mid-term breaks.

With joy and enthusiasm, Ruth finds immense fulfillment in guiding young children toward accepting Christ. She attributes her understanding of the importance of giving back to the community to the Logos Scholarship Fund, and she is deeply grateful for the opportunity to make a positive impact in her community.

EMBRACING TRANSITIONS: FROM HIGH SCHOOL TO CHARTING NEW TERRITORIES AS YOUNG ADULTS

Transitions signify times of change, ushering in new seasons and beginnings. While they often bring feelings of sadness, fear, uncertainty, and disorientation, they also symbolize the end of one chapter and the exciting start of another.

As our Form Four scholars prepare to transition out of the Logos Scholarship Fund program at the end of the year, we have initiated sessions to help them navigate this significant change. These sessions explore what transitions entail, acknowledging the common emotions of anxiety, skepticism, and low morale that accompany them.

The sessions also highlight the new opportunities that come with change and through the recent one we held, we encouraged our scholars to share their thoughts on transitions and guided them through the emotions associated with this process, including sadness, fear, disorientation, uncertainty, frustration, and denial.

Transitions offer us the chance to learn, grow, and evolve as individuals. They remind us that every season can mark the start of a new chapter, filled with possibilities for personal development and positive change. This understanding has helped our Form Four students begin to process and anticipate the transition they will face at the end of the year.

Blessings Makena, one of our scholars, shared her insights from the session. She realized the inevitability of this transition and the importance of being prepared for change. Blessings now looks forward to the possibilities and opportunities for learning and growth that lie ahead. By understanding that transitions signify both an ending and a new beginning, she was able to see that embracing change allows for the acceptance of new and potentially wonderful experiences.

We are filled with gratitude for the growth and achievements of our Form Four students and are excited to see them embark on this new journey, confident that they are ready to embrace the changes and opportunities that await them.

Thank You!

As we bring this edition of the Logos Scholarship Fund newsletter to a close, we are filled with immense pride and gratitude. The stories of Ruth Nyamisa and Alvin Ndungu exemplify the spirit of giving back and the profound impact our scholars have on their communities. Their dedication and passion are a testament to the power of service and the difference it can make in the lives of others.

The journey of our Form Four students transitioning from high school to tertiary education is another remarkable milestone. Their courage to embrace change and seek out new opportunities for growth is truly inspiring. We are confident that they will continue to excel and make meaningful contributions wherever they go.

None of this would be possible without the unwavering support of you - our mentors, sponsors, and supporters. Your generosity and commitment to the Logos Scholarship Fund enable us to nurture and empower these young minds, fostering a brighter future for all.

Thank you for being an integral part of our community. Together, we are making a lasting impact, one that will be felt for generations to come. As we move forward, let us continue to uplift, inspire, and support one another in our shared mission to create positive change.

With heartfelt gratitude,
